

City of Jewett Proclamation
Fall Frolic Day
October 10, 2009

- WHEREAS: The Jewett Area Chamber of Commerce was established on December 20th, 1979; and
- WHEREAS: The Jewett Area Chamber of Commerce actively promotes the Jewett area businesses through community activities and fundraising events; and
- WHEREAS: The Jewett Area Chamber of Commerce participates in the advancement of higher education with awarding a scholarship to a graduating student of Leon High School; and
- WHEREAS: The Jewett Area Chamber of Commerce is faithful to their motto: The Future Is Now Together We Can Make A Difference; and
- WHEREAS: For the past 27 years the Jewett Area Chamber of Commerce has hosted the annual Fall Frolic providing the citizens of Jewett, visitors from the surrounding towns, counties and the state of Texas with a day filled with family fun, entertainment, games, food, memories; and
- WHEREAS: The Jewett Area Chamber of Commerce would like to invite the City of Jewett and each business owner in Jewett to help us celebrate the Fall Frolic by decorating their storefront in the tradition of the Fall Season.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Judi Kirkpatrick, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Jewett do hereby proclaim October 10, 2009 as Fall Frolic Day in the City of Jewett and invite all our citizens to join me for the fun and festivities.

Judi Kirkpatrick
Mayor

ATTEST:

Virginia Sutton
City Administrator

