

RESOLUTION #06-11-01

Agreement between the Jewett City Council and the Leon County Community Coalition (LCCC) in support of the campaign “Those Who Host Lose the Most”

The City of Jewett agrees to join with the Leon County Community Coalition (LCCC) to coordinate a public awareness campaign entitled “Those Who Host Lose the Most” throughout the City of Jewett and to support the Leon County effort.

As part of the Agreement, the Jewett City Council agrees to:

1. Support LCCC on continuing efforts to reduce underage drinking through a public awareness campaign “Those Who Host Lose the Most”.
2. Assist in dissemination of educational materials through city channels.
3. LCCC requests the City to purchase a banner to support this campaign and place it in town during the months of the campaign and the month of enforcement.

LCCC agrees to:

1. LCCC will join other regional coalitions throughout Texas in a campaign to prevent underage drinking “Those Who Host Lose the Most”
2. During the timeline of February 2007 through April and May will be the month of law enforcement.
3. Assess communities’ awareness of the laws on providing alcohol to minors.
4. Develop a baseline for evaluation.
5. Increase the amount of media coverage on statistics and issue of substance use, targeting adults who buy alcohol or provide to minors.
6. Educate community on responsibility and consequence and laws that will affect those who choose to provide alcohol to minors.
7. Develop materials with information that will increase the awareness of laws.
8. Develop a plan to get informational materials in each household throughout Leon County.
9. Facilitate press releases to generate community support and awareness.

This Resolution serves as a common commitment between the City of Jewett and the LCCC in order to reduce substance use among youth.
